Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

Benedict College's Career Pathways Initiative advanced experiential learning and career development opportunities for underrepresented college students using funds allocated by the South Carolina State Legislature in the amount of $50,000. The opportunities provided through the provision of travel and housing expenses, stipends and professional dress enhance students' career readiness skills and increase employability post-graduation. The anticipated outcome for the Maximizing Career Pathways through Experiential Learning at Benedict College was to create immediate experiential learning opportunities for students to engage in research and create career readiness for our economy.
