Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

This award meets the needs of school districts to develop qualified and certified administrators for their schools at a reduced rate. Further, this meets the needs of the school districts to provide free leadership training and graduate level course work for teaching certificate renewal purposes for teachers in their districts who wish to increase their leadership skills and opportunities without leaving the classroom. Both parts of the Converse Center of Excellence in Teacher Leadership strengthen participating school districts by providing in-service opportunities for continuous improvement and leadership development.
