

ACTIVATING, CREATING, AND ESTABLISHING COLLEGE CREDIT IN SOUTH CAROLINA FOR PRIOR MILITARY LEARNING

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education and the American Council on Education, Learning Evaluations have developed a virtual and in-person training program to educate administrators, faculty, staff and veterans student support services personnel on the importance of credit for prior learning (CPL). This program emphasizes CPL's economic benefits, especially for independent and military-connected students.

Training offered at NO COST to you!
EARN A CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION!!!

ACE® American Council on Education®

Dates

Registration Deadline: August 31

- ✓ Virtual Kickoff Webinar:
September 12
- ✓ Self-Paced Micro-Courses:
September 12-19
- ✓ In-person Training:
September 27
763 Fashion Drive, Columbia, SC

Registration and additional details:
<https://che.sc.gov/militarycpltraining>

Training Outcomes

- Identify and understand the approach toward CPL determinations.
- Observe processes and data to better support the review of the JST and facilitate the maximum award of credit to military connected students.
- Identify strategies to document CPL and military learner attainment successes.
- Interact with colleagues around the state on growing CPL at your institution.