

GREEN ZONE TRAINING

In Support of Student Veterans

Mission

Green Zone Training provides faculty, staff, and graduate assistants with an understanding of the military experience of veterans and military-connected students as they transition from the military to campus life.

About

We value our veterans and military-connected students not only for their service to our country but also for the leadership, life experience and maturity they bring to the education environment on campus. Faculty, staff, and fellow students play an essential role in helping student veterans transition to life at Clemson. We invite you to attend Green Zone Training to learn about the military student experience and how best to support this population.

New Training

Have you previously completed Green Zone Training? Military & Veteran Engagement has carefully crafted a NEW presentation with updated data, resources, and experiences. Whether you are a first-time participant or looking for a refresher, now is the perfect time to engage with Green Zone Training. Participants will receive a new Green Zone Training sticker and will be added to the Green Zone Training Alliance list.

Discussion Topics

Green Zone Training participants will learn:

- Facts and figures related to military students
- What it means to be a student veteran
- About military and veteran experiences
- Myths and stigmas associated with student veterans
- On- and off-campus resources and support services for veterans and military connected students

More Inclusive

Based on Military & Veteran Engagement's goal to serve all veterans and military-connected students on campus, we've updated our training to be even more inclusive. We're now including more information about our military family members.
