1. Introductions and Approval of Minutes

Kinsey Phillips introduced the guests in attendance and confirmed that the meeting was held in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act. Chair Jenni Bryson provided greetings and reiterated the purpose of the meeting to all in attendance.

Chair Bryson called for a motion to approve the minutes of the Committee on Student Services August 6, 2026, meeting. A motion was made (Batson), seconded (Dukes), and carried to approve the minutes.

1. Chair Report

Chair Bryson provided a brief introduction of Addison Felkel, a student at University of South Carolina – Columbia. Ms. Felkel discussed her experience as a photography student and shared her love of the University of South Carolina. Ms. Felkel expressed that she is grateful to USC for its sense of community and for the way the university provides opportunities for students to work in their desired fields before they graduate. Ms. Felkel specifically affirmed that her experience working with the University's Athletics department was positive. An area of improvement that Ms. Felkel discussed was academic advisement at USC. She discussed that she has had many advisors despite staying in the same program and that this lack of consistency affects the kind and quality of information that students receive about their academics. Ms. Felkel also discussed the delays in student loan disbursement to just days prior to classes increases student anxiety surrounding being dropped from classes for non-payment, so she recommended that, if possible, institutions disburse student loans more quickly.

2. State Scholarship Regulations

Dr. Gerrick Hampton presented updates to the South Carolina LIFE, HOPE, and Palmetto Fellows scholarship regulations. Dr. Hampton explained the regulatory process and the timeline that the CHE needs to follow in order for the proposed changes to be submitted in the next legislative session. Dr. Hampton then provided an overview of the proposed changes to all of the three scholarship programs. One of the primary changes discussed was changing LIFE GPA to "State Scholarship GPA" in order to simplify the scholarship renewal process across all three programs, reducing confusion on the part of students and financial aid staff. Commissioner Dukes asked if the requirements for retaining scholarships would remain the same. Dr. Hampton affirmed that the GPA requirement for renewing Palmetto Fellows would now match the LIFE scholarship.

Chair Bryson asked to clarify that the institutions requested these changes and asked how those requests were collected. Dr. Hampton explained that a notice of drafting was sent to institutions. After the notice was sent, CHE staff met with institutions at three separate regional workshops throughout the state where changes were requested. Finally, updates and feedback were requested via a request form where suggestions were sent from institutions to CHE.

Kathryn Harris discussed the changes to the Palmetto Fellows Scholarship regulations and affirmed that the changes were made in order to align requirements across the three scholarship programs and to simplify. Dr. Jeff Perez agreed that the changes will help to clarify scholarship requirements with the state legislature and with the public.

Commissioner Dukes asked to clarify whether students needed to earn 30 credit hours annually in order to renew their scholarship. Ms. Harris stated that the updated regulation would allow students to earn an average of 30 credit hours per academic year (Fall, Spring, Summer) in order to renew their scholarship, and that the updates would allow Palmetto Fellows to make use of AP, IB, Dual Enrollment, and CLEP hours toward their renewal. Dr. Karen Woodfaulk confirmed this and that reminded that students needed to maintain full-time status in order to retain eligibility. Commissioner Bigham asked to clarify if all credit hours earned prior to college enrollment would be accepted. Ms. Harris stated that those hours earned prior to college enrollment would need to be hours that the institution accepted towards the student's degree program in order to count towards scholarship eligibility.

Commissioner Batson asked to what extent these regulatory updates could affect the overall expenditures of the agency. Dr. Woodfaulk stated that the updates could potentially increase student eligibility and retention. Dr. Hampton stated that data was requested from the institutions to determine the fiscal impact of the update to the residency requirement, and that not all institutions had responded yet. However, he stated that the current data shows a potential increase of $2.7 million in scholarship awards. Ms. Harris stated that the potential fiscal impact of the "State Scholarship GPA" change could result in an increase of $287,500 due to increased retention of Palmetto Fellows Scholarships.

Chair Bryson called for a motion to approve the State Scholarship Regulations. A motion was made (Dukes), seconded (Batson), and carried to approve the report.

3. FAFSA First

Alantis Seckal explained the background of FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), which is an application that students in the United States complete in order to apply for financial aid for college or graduate school. Ms. Seckal provided data on national FAFSA completion rates, as well as South Carolina's current completion rate of 63.9%, which is an increase of 9.7% over the 2025-2026 statistics. At the time of the meeting, South Carolina ranked #15 in the nation for FAFSA completion. Dr. Perez asked how many of the top 15 states mandate FAFSA. Ms. Seckal presented data that showed six states with FAFSA mandates rank more highly than South Carolina. However, three states with a rank lower than South Carolina mandate FAFSA completion. The Committee briefly discussed the possibility of South Carolina implementing a FAFSA mandate.

Ms. Seckal then discussed CHE's FAFSA First program, which is a FAFSA completion initiative. High schools host events for students to complete the FAFSA with the assistance of financial aid counselors at local institutions. Ms. Seckal presented information about the 2025-2026 FAFSA First Challenge, which was a statewide competition between schools, designed to boost FAFSA completion and expand students' access to financial aid, along with recognizing schools that excel in supporting college and career readiness. Ms. Seckal also explained the other programs and initiatives CHE is promoting in order to increase FAFSA completion. These programs include FAFSA Ready Workshops featuring presentations from financial aid professionals, the previously discussed FAFSA First Challenge, and the FAFSA First Toolkit to provide resources, templates for events, and recordings of previous trainings.

4. Other Business

As there was no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:17 pm.

South Carolina National Guard College Assistance Program Fiscal Year 2025-2026 Annual Report

November 5, 2026

Historical Background

A postsecondary financial assistance program for South Carolina National Guard members - the SC National Guard College Assistance Program (SCNG CAP) - was implemented in the academic year 2007-08 to better support the recruitment goals of the SC National Guard (SCNG) through a loan repayment program. Legislation closed the SC National Guard Student Loan Repayment Program and replaced the loan program with SCNG CAP (Attachment III). The Commission on Higher Education (CHE), in consultation with the SCNG, developed program guidance, and CHE promulgated regulations for the operation and administration of the SCNG CAP pursuant to SC Code of Laws Section 59-114-10 et seq. in 2009. The SCNG CAP is administered by CHE in consultation with the SCNG and provides financial assistance for eligible enlisted servicemembers enrolled in undergraduate programs at the two-and four-year public and independent colleges and universities.

Previous Award Cycles through FY 2021-2022

The total SCNG CAP benefits received in previous cycles through FY2021–22 could not exceed $18,000, and the maximum number of credit hours earned was limited to 130 semester hours or the equivalent in quarter hours from the time of initial eligibility. Eligible Army National Guard servicemembers previously received up to $4,500 per year, and eligible Air Guard servicemembers received up to $9,000 per year. During the FY20-21 legislative session, proviso 117.167 (under General Provisions) was approved by the General Assembly to allow eligible members of the SC National Guard to qualify for CAP funds beyond the 130-credit hour maximum, provided that Air and Army Guard members meet all eligibility requirements. This proviso, effective FY2021-22, allowed additional opportunities for eligible Air and Army Guard members to use CAP funds to pursue less than one-year or one-year certifications, two-year programs, or first or second associate degrees without credit hour limits, not to exceed $18,000.

Award Cycles FY 2022- 2023 through FY 2025-2026

Under General Provisions from FY22-23 through FY2024-2025, the credit hour limit was removed, and a member of the SC National Guard may qualify for college assistance program grants for more than 130 semester hours or equivalent quarter hours. Eligible Air and Army National Guard service members received up to $5,500 per year at a four-year institution, and eligible Air Guard service members received up to $11,000 at a two-year institution. Additionally, service members could receive a total of twenty-two thousand dollars ($22,000) in total CAP funds to cover up to one hundred percent of college tuition and fees for the academic year. This increase in the lifetime maximum award was used by recruiters to encourage applicants to enlist in the South Carolina National Guard. The increase in the award amount provided educational opportunities for service members to obtain their degrees without the burden of student loans or paying out of pocket, as well as pursue less than one-year or one-year certifications, two-year programs, or first or second associate degrees without credit hour limits, not to exceed the lifetime maximum of $22,000.

Although the CAP lifetime benefit was increased to $22,000 in FY 2023-2024, South Carolina National Guard leaders and stakeholders continued discussions on expanding educational opportunities to better support service members pursuing undergraduate degrees. As a result, the General Assembly approved Proviso 117.140 during the FY 2025-2026 legislative session. Effective July 2025, the proviso increased the annual CAP award to $12,000 per academic year (up to $4,000 per semester for full-time students), raised the lifetime benefit from $22,000 to $25,000, and continued eligibility for members pursuing more than 130 semester hours.

Current FY 2026-2027 Award Cycle

For FY 2026-2027, the General Assembly continued support for the South Carolina National Guard College Assistance Program through Proviso 117.140, maintaining eligibility beyond 130 semester hours, an annual award maximum of $12,000, and a $25,000 lifetime benefit cap. The program entered the fiscal year with a carryforward balance of $10.24 million and continued to receive an annual Lottery appropriation of $6.2 million, ensuring the program's long-term sustainability and capacity to support future growth.

Recruitment and College Assistance Approved Applications: Attachment I

The SC Air and Army National Guard set annual recruitment goals. The South Carolina Air National Guard successfully achieved its FY2026 annual recruitment goal, enlisting 161 Air servicemembers and surpassing its goal of 160 recruits, achieving 100 percent of its target recruitment goal. For FY 2026-2027, the recruiting target has increased to 200 Airmen to support evolving mission demands and force readiness requirements. As the fiscal year began on October 1, 2026, recruitment data for FY2027 are preliminary, with 2 Air recruits enlisted as of the reporting date. The Air National Guard expects recruiting efforts to continue throughout the year in support of achieving its annual goal. The Air National Guard representatives shared that increased marketing through social media, building state partnerships, and pushing this year's branding "Everyone wants to be a Swamp Fox" have boosted their recruitment footprint, and they anticipate this media campaign will be successful. In FY 2025-26, the Army National Guard exceeded its recruitment goal by enlisting 1,087 Soldiers, surpassing its target of 933 by 16 percent. For FY 2026-27, the Army National Guard has recruited 1,214 soldiers, exceeding its recruitment goal of 1,107 by 9.7 percent. The Army National Guard reported that the increase in recruitment goals from FY 2026 to FY 2027 was due to the increase in education benefits, service, and job opportunities. Education benefits remain the top reason soldiers enlist. According to the Army National Guard, marketing, conducting in-person briefings, and podcasts are initiatives that have increased recruitment. Currently, SC is ranked 7th in the nation for market branding.

South Carolina National Guard members seeking assistance through CAP are required to apply each year to receive benefits. CAP offers two annual application opportunities, with the first application period occurring from June 1 to August 1 and the second, which began in November 2022, from November 20 to December 15. The approved applications and award data presented in this report for Academic Year 2026-27 reflect only the results from the first application cycle. Therefore, the number of approved applications does not represent the full participation and funding levels for the current academic year and will be updated after the second application window has been concluded.

The number of approved applications for Air servicemembers for 2025-2026 was 90, and as of October 2026, 88 applications have been approved for 2026-2027, which reflects a slight 2 percent decrease from the previous year; however, the total dollar amount to be awarded ($900,000) for the 26-27AY to Airmen increased by 7 percent. The number of applications approved for Soldiers for 25-26AY was 1,118, and as of October 2026, 999 applications were approved, which also reflects a slight 11 percent decrease; however, the total dollar amount to be awarded ($11.3 million) for the 26-27AY increased by 31 percent.

Although the total number of approved Army and Air National Guard applications declined from 1,208 in AY 2025-26 to 1,087 in AY 2026-27, the total amount to be awarded increased significantly from $9.49 million to $12.27 million. After the SCNG CAP second application window, it is anticipated that the number of approved applications and the amounts to be awarded may increase. It is important to note that the increase in funding despite fewer recipients indicates a higher average award amount per student in AY 2026-27, reflecting support for increased educational costs and expanded financial support provided through the program (see Attachment I).

The number of approved applications does not actually reflect the actual headcount of eligible service members that receive a college assistance award. Eligible members may apply for CAP benefits, but some choose not to enroll, enroll part-time, or not receive an award due to other eligibility requirements. The official number of awards and eligible service members will be reported through the CHE Information Management System (CHEMIS) and will be reflected in the summary - Attachments IV and V.

CAP Students Pursuing Degrees and Credentials- Attachment II

As mentioned earlier, educational benefits remain the top reason servicemembers enlist. The educational pursuits of South Carolina National Guard service members in the 2026-27 academic year reveal similar patterns between the Army and Air divisions. Among Army National Guard service members, a strong majority, 77 percent, are pursuing bachelor's degrees, with 20 percent working toward associate degrees and three percent seeking academic certificates. The Air National Guard service members show: 75 percent are pursuing bachelor's degrees, 25 percent are pursuing associate degrees, and no students are pursuing academic certificates. These trends suggest Bachelor's degree programs represented the largest area of study, accounting for 76.7% of all National Guard service members, followed by associate degree programs at 20.8%. An additional 2.4% of students pursued academic certifications. These figures highlight a strong emphasis on service members pursuing higher educational attainment and workforce development.

Air National Guard Awards- Attachment II

Over the past decade, the Air National Guard has demonstrated a stable increase in the number of servicemembers awarded college assistance. From 87 awards in 2016-2017 to 74 in 2025-2026, data fluctuates but remains relatively steady. During the 2022-2023 academic year, the yearly award amounts rose due to the increase in the maximum SCNG CAP award amount from the $18,000 lifetime award amount to $22,000, and the additional open enrollment opportunities during the second application window that began in November 2022. While the number of recipients has not returned to historical highs, total award funding reached a record $476,000 in 2025-2026 (74 awards) due to the maximum lifetime amount increasing from $22,000 to $25,000. This trend indicates that CAP is providing greater financial support per recipient, supporting increased educational costs and enhanced benefit levels should continue to support the recruitment, retention, and educational advancement of South Carolina Air National Guard members.

Army National Guard Awards - Attachment II:

The Army National Guard has demonstrated steady growth in the number of servicemembers awarded college assistance over the past decade. From 621 awards in 2016-17 to 1074 in 2025-26, the data reflects an increase in the number of awards and the yearly award amounts. During the 2022-2023 through 2024-2025 period, the award amounts have climbed significantly due to the increase in the maximum SCNG CAP award amount from the $18,000 lifetime award amount to $22,000. Award funding reached a record $6.86 million in 2025-26 (1074 awards) due to the maximum lifetime amount increasing from $22,000 to $25,000. The increase in annual award limits and expanded educational opportunities have enabled more Army National Guard members to pursue postsecondary education while reducing their out-of-pocket expenses; however, some soldiers have reached the $25,000 lifetime maximum.

Ten-year Summary by Institution - Attachments IV and V

The data of the ten-year summary is in Attachments IV and V for Air and Army Guard SCNG CAP servicemembers, show the unduplicated headcount by institution and the award amounts per academic year. This means that a servicemember who receives a SCNG CAP award at any point over the three semesters (fall, spring, and summer) during the academic year will only be counted once, while students who transferred during the year may be counted twice for the academic year. Also, the award amounts vary among SCNG CAP recipients in general. Awards are counted by semesters, which means that the award amounts for the same number of students will differ between years and institutions. Data are reported to the CHE Office of Information Technology and Data Analysis on an annual cycle and provided based on availability. Institutional reporters have one calendar year (12 months) from the initial reporting deadline to make changes or revisions. Data received during this period is considered provisional.

Effect of Amendment

The 2007 amendment rewrote this section.

Tucker Hipps Transparency Act 265 of 2016

Background

The Tucker Hipps Transparency Act in Act 265 of 2016 requires S.C. four-year public institutions, with exception to the Medical University of SC (MUSC) and The Citadel, to maintain reports of actual findings of certain misconduct by fraternity and sorority organizations. The sunset provision of Act 265 of 2016 resulted in the expiration of the Act on June 29, 2019, unless the provisions of the Act were extended or reenacted by the General Assembly (Attachment I). The General Assembly approved the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act under permanent continuation and thereby repealed the sunset provision on April 26, 2019. Act 265 of 2016 permanently authorized the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Attachment II).

Overview

According to the Act, a public higher education institution, excluding technical colleges, MUSC and The Citadel, must maintain a report of actual findings of violations of the institution's Conduct of Student Organizations by fraternity and sorority organizations affiliated with the institution. A report of actual findings of violations of the Conduct of Student Organizations is required for offenses involving alcohol, drugs, sexual assaults, physical assaults, and hazing. The name of the organization, and when the organization was charged with the misconduct, must be provided as well as the dates on which the citation was issued regarding the event and the initiation date of the investigation. The institution must provide a general description of the incident, the charges, findings, and sanctions placed on the organization, and the date the matter was resolved.

The report must not include personal identifiable information of individual students. The institution, according to the Act, must update this report at least forty-five calendar days before the start of the fall and spring academic semesters and provide reports on its internet website in a prominent location.

The Tucker Hipps Transparency Act requires the institution to furnish a printed notice of the nature and availability of the report and the website address where it can be accessed for student and parent orientation purposes. The institution must maintain updated reports over a four-year period on their websites. Each public institution, with the exception of MUSC and The Citadel, must submit to the Commission on Higher Education a statement within fourteen calendar days of posting the updated report.

2025-2026 Academic Year Review

During the 2025–26 academic year, South Carolina higher education institutions reported 34 confirmed violations involving 19 fraternities, sororities, and student organizations across 22 incidents. While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under Act 265 reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions. This granular count reflects individual violations, even when multiple violations arose from the same incident or organization.

Additionally, during the 2025-26 academic year, South Carolina State University reported three charges involving Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., that remain under investigation, with sanctions pending and no resolution date reported as of October 2026. Because the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act requires the reporting of actual findings, these pending charges are not included in the confirmed violation totals.

Key 2025-26 Statistics:

Policy / Compliance Violations: 10 violations — the most frequently reported category. These primarily involved failure to comply with university directives, violations of organizational conduct requirements, failure to follow established procedures, and noncompliance with previously imposed sanctions.

Other Violations: 9 violations — encompassing fraudulent behavior, misuse of university resources or identification, property damage, disruptive conduct, and other violations of institutional policies.

Hazing: 9 violations — involving inappropriate new member education practices, including personal servitude, degrading activities, and other behaviors inconsistent with institutional hazing policies.

Alcohol-Related Violations: 6 violations — including alcohol-related misconduct at organizational events, improper distribution or possession of alcohol, and alcohol consumption involving underage members.

Several organizations faced disciplinary sanctions, including probation, restrictions on organizational activities, and additional institutional oversight. These actions reflect institutional efforts to address misconduct, reinforce organizational accountability, and promote student safety.

Chart 1. Violations by Type (2025-2026)

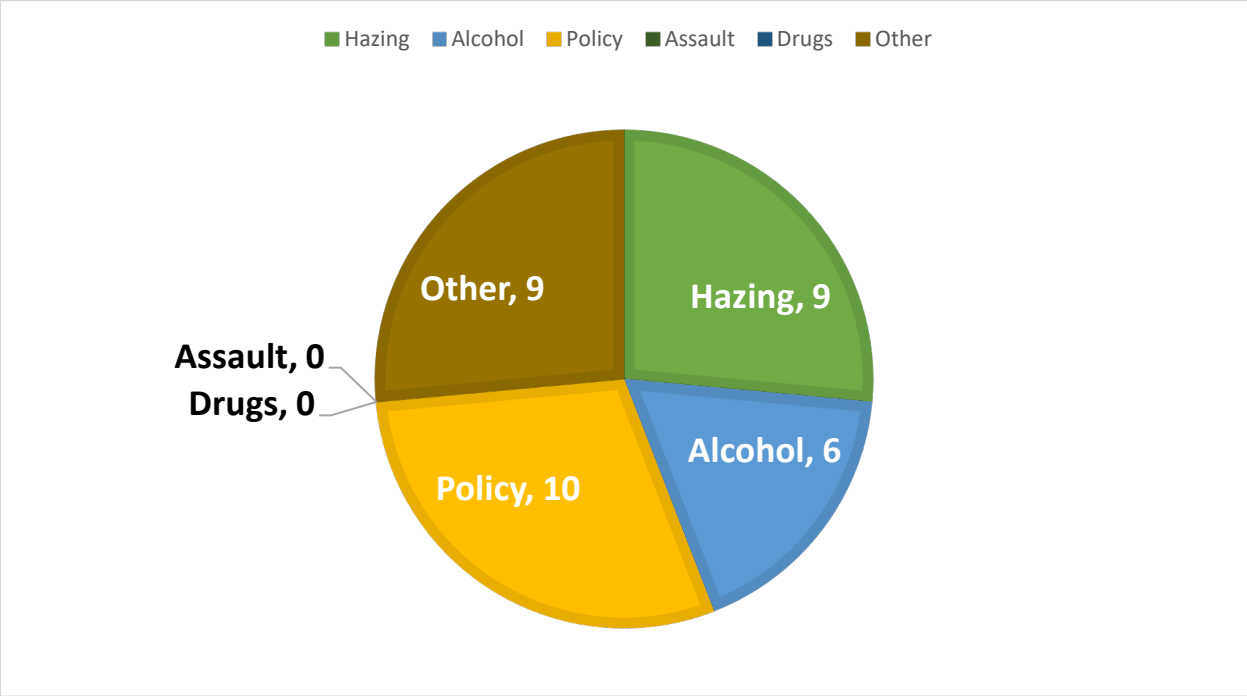

Chart 1 illustrates the distribution of the 34 reported violations during the 2025–26 reporting year. Policy and compliance violations represented the largest category (10), followed by other institutional policy violations (9) and hazing violations (9). Alcohol-related violations accounted for the remaining 6 violations. These findings highlight ongoing concerns related to organizational accountability, compliance with institutional policies, hazing prevention, and alcohol-related misconduct.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Tucker Hipps Five-Year Analysis

During the five-year reporting period spanning Fall 2021 through Spring 2026, South Carolina institutions of higher learning reported a total of 169 violations involving fraternities, sororities, and other student organizations.

Annual violations fluctuated throughout the reporting period, ranging from a low of 27 in 2022–23 to a high of 40 in 2024–25. Following a decline in 2022–23, reported violations increased over the next two academic years, reaching their highest level in 2024–25.

The 2025–26 academic year recorded 34 confirmed violations involving 19 distinct institution–organization combinations. This represents a 15% decrease in total violations compared to the previous academic year, which recorded 40 violations involving 29 organizations.

The types of violations reported also varied throughout the five-year period. Hazing remained a significant concern, reaching a high of 16 violations in 2024–25 before declining to nine in 2025–26, representing a 43.8% reduction. During the most recent academic year, policy violations were the most frequently reported category (10), followed by other violations (9), hazing (9), and alcohol-related violations (6).

Table 1. Total Violations by Academic Year

Academic Year	Total Violations	Number of Organizations
2021-22	30	19
2022-23	27	19
2023-24	38	24
2024-25	40	29
2025-26	34	19
Total	169

Table 1 presents the total number of reported violations over the five-year reporting period, which fluctuated from a low of 27 in 2022–23 to a high of 40 in 2024–25. The 2024–25 academic year also recorded the greatest number of organizations involved (29). In 2025–26, reported violations decreased to 34, representing a 15.0% reduction from the previous year. The number of organizations involved also declined from 29 to 19, representing a 34.5% decrease.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Table 2. Violations by Type (5-Year Summary)

Violation Type	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24	2024-25	2025-26	Total	% of Total
Alcohol	11	4	11	10	6	42	24.9%
Policy	10	7	5	9	10	41	24.3%
Hazing	4	12	12	16	9	53	31.4%
Other	4	2	9	5	9	29	17.2%
Assault	1	2	0	0	0	3	1.8%
Drugs	0	0	1	0	0	1	0.6%
Total	30	27	38	40	34	169	100%

Table 2 provides a breakdown of violations by category over the five-year reporting period from 2021–22 through 2025–26. Hazing accounted for the largest proportion of reported violations (53, 31.4%), followed by Alcohol-related violations (42, 24.9%), Policy violations (41, 24.3%), and Other violations (29, 17.2%). Assault and Drug-related violations represented a relatively small percentage of the overall total.

An examination of year-over-year data reveals notable shifts in the types of violations reported. Hazing violations increased from four in 2021–22 to a peak of 16 in 2024–25 before declining to nine in 2025–26, representing a 43.8% decrease from the previous year. Alcohol-related violations also declined in 2025–26, decreasing from 10 to six, while Policy violations increased slightly from nine to 10. Other violations, which include property damage, noise complaints, and miscellaneous infractions, increased from five in 2024–25 to nine in 2025–26.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Chart 2. Violations by Type (5-Year Total)

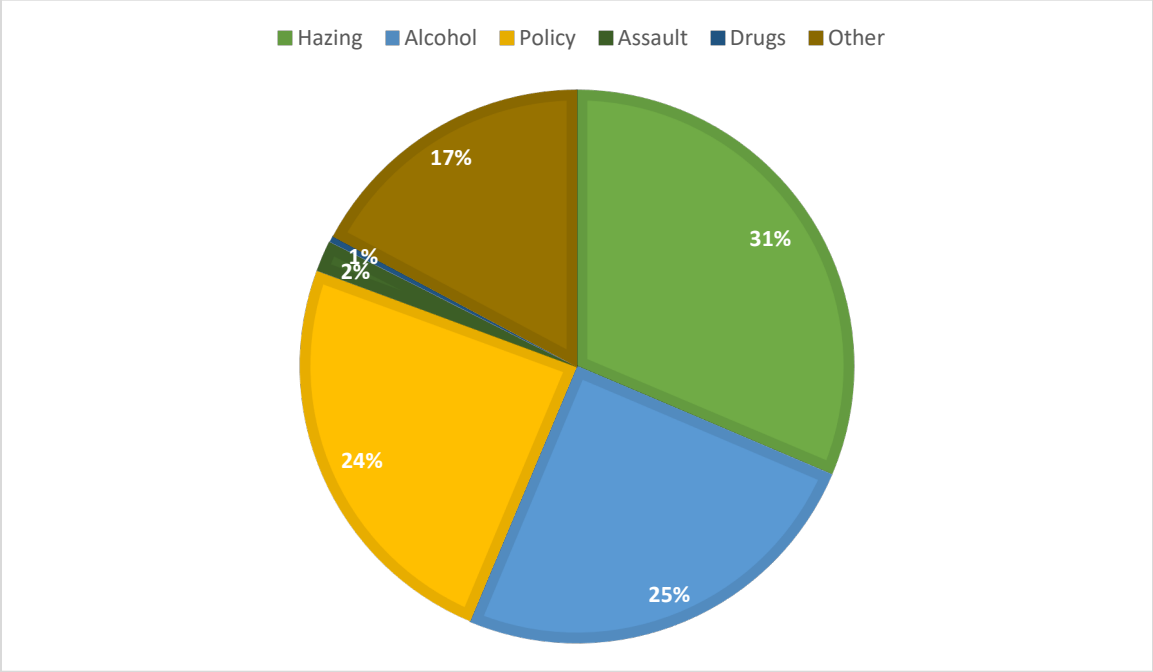

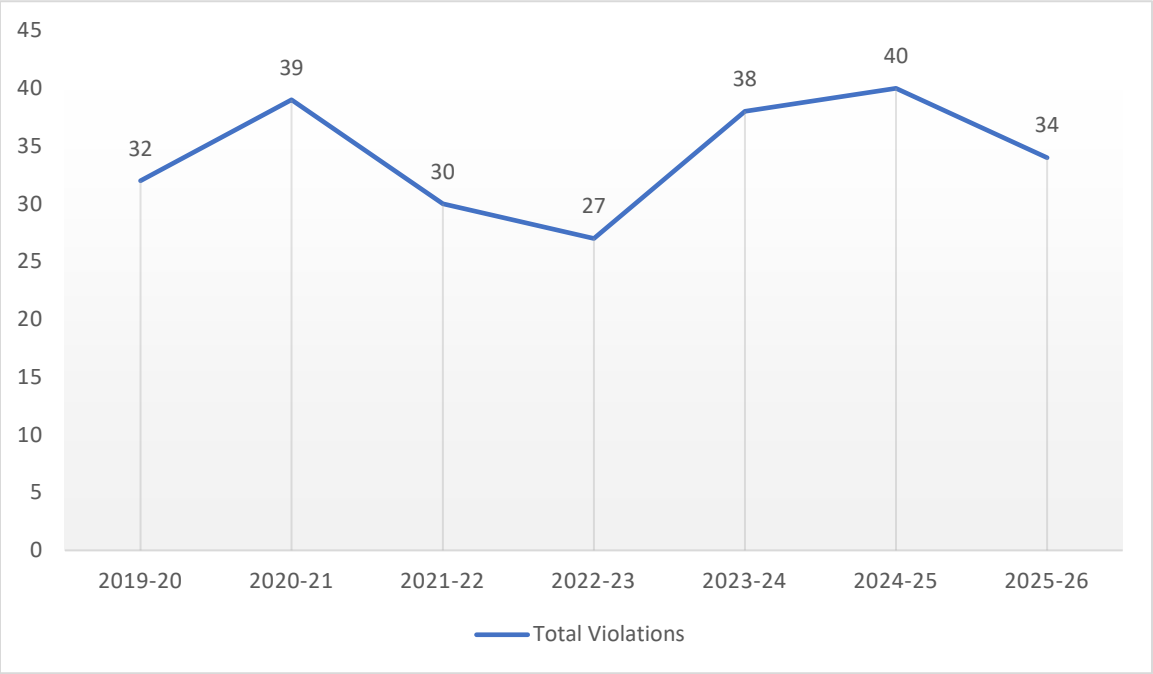

Chart 2 illustrates that Hazing, Alcohol, and Policy violations collectively account for approximately 80.5% of all reported infractions over the five-year period (2021–22 through 2025–26). Hazing represents the largest category at 31.4%, followed by Alcohol (24.9%) and Policy violations (24.3%). This concentration highlights the primary areas of concern and underscores the importance of continued prevention, education, and institutional oversight.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Chart 3. Total Violations Over Time

As shown in Chart 3, total reported violations fluctuated between the 2019–20 and 2025–26 academic years. Following 39 reported violations in 2020–21, violations declined during the 2021–22 and 2022–23 academic years before increasing again in 2023–24 and 2024–25. The 2024–25 academic year recorded the highest number of violations during the seven-year reporting period (40). However, this upward trend reversed in 2025–26, with reported violations declining to 34, representing a 15.0% decrease from the previous year. Despite this reduction, the number of reported violations remained above the levels recorded in 2021–22 and 2022–23.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Chart 4: Violations by Type Over Time

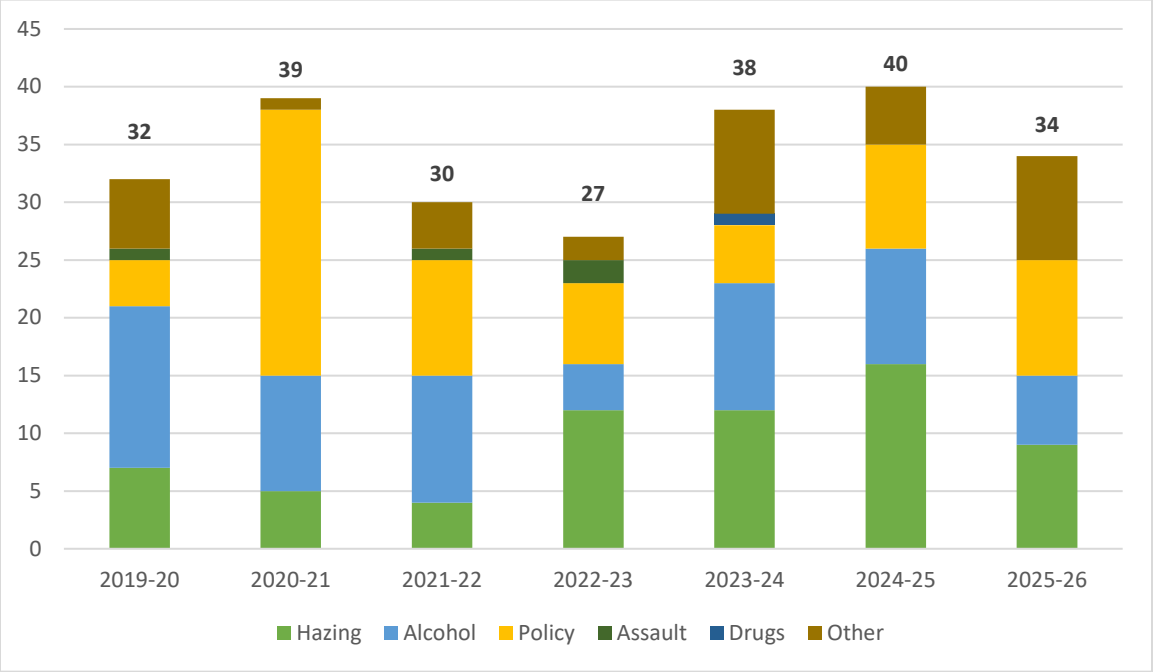

Chart 4 illustrates the changing trends in violation types from the 2019–20 through 2025–26 academic years. Policy violations peaked in 2020–21, largely reflecting pandemic-related compliance issues, while Hazing violations generally increased in subsequent years, reaching a high of 16 in 2024–25. However, the 2025–26 academic year reflected a shift, with Hazing violations declining to nine, representing a 43.8% decrease from the previous year. Policy violations emerged as the most frequently reported category (10), followed by Hazing and Other violations (9 each). Alcohol-related violations also decreased from 10 in 2024–25 to six in 2025–26. These trends demonstrate the evolving nature of reported misconduct and highlight the continued importance of institutional oversight and prevention efforts.

While student organizations are not specifically required to be included under the Tucker Hipps Transparency Act (Act 265) reporting requirements, incidents involving these organizations are included in this report when reported by institutions.

Analysis

The analysis of violations reported from the 2021–22 through 2025–26 academic years reveals several important trends related to student organization conduct and compliance. Over the five-year reporting period, South Carolina institutions of higher learning reported a total of 169 violations. While annual totals fluctuated, the 2024–25 academic year recorded the highest number of violations (40) and the greatest number of organizations involved (29). In 2025–26, reported violations declined to 34, involving 19 organizations, representing decreases of 15.0% and 34.5%, respectively.

Hazing, alcohol-related, and policy violations continued to account for the majority of reported infractions, collectively representing 80.5% of all violations during the five-year period. Hazing was the most frequently reported category overall, accounting for 53 violations (31.4%). Although hazing violations increased in previous years, reaching a peak of 16 in 2024–25, they declined to nine in 2025–26, representing a 43.8% decrease. Alcohol-related violations also declined during the most recent academic year, while policy and other violations increased slightly.

The reduction in both total violations and the number of organizations involved in 2025–26 represents a notable change from the upward trend observed during the preceding two academic years. However, the continued occurrence of hazing, alcohol-related misconduct, policy violations, and other organizational infractions demonstrates that student organization conduct remains an important area of institutional concern. While the decrease in reported violations is encouraging, the data alone does not establish whether the decline reflects changes in student behavior, institutional prevention efforts, or reporting practices.

Overall, the five-year analysis reinforces the importance of continued education, prevention initiatives, organizational accountability, and institutional oversight. Ongoing monitoring of student organization conduct and reported violations will help institutions identify emerging trends, evaluate prevention strategies, and strengthen policies and educational efforts aimed at promoting student safety and responsible organizational practices.

South Carolina State University

South Carolina Program for the Recruitment and Retention of Minority Teachers

Five-Year Comprehensive Program Review

Fiscal Years 2021-22 through 2025-26

Prepared for the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education

October 15, 2026

Prepared by South Carolina State University

Alexander Conyers, President

Overview

The South Carolina Program for the Recruitment and Retention of Minority Teachers (SC-PRRMT) serves an important role in supporting the recruitment, preparation, and retention of prospective educators in South Carolina. Through financial assistance and educational support, the program contributes to efforts to strengthen the state's teacher workforce and expand opportunities for individuals pursuing careers in education.

In support of continued program improvement and accountability, this comprehensive review responds to the Commission on Higher Education's August 2026 recommendation for a five-year examination of the South Carolina Program for the Recruitment and Retention of Minority Teachers (SC-PRRMT). It organizes the information presently available from the July 27 Quarter III report and the Commission's August 6 meeting materials and request.

The review encompasses fiscal years 2021–22 through 2025–26 and examines program enrollment, recruitment, retention, graduation, financial assistance, and other relevant programmatic and fiscal information. Additionally, it is important to note that the SC-PRRMT program director passed away following a terminal illness in July 2026. Consequently, the program is currently undergoing a period of transition, and additional historical records and supporting documentation are being identified as the review process continues.

Annual Program Enrollment and Reporting Methodology

The SC-PRRMT previously reported annual participant totals ranging from 67 to 78 for FY2021–22 through FY2025–26. A review suggests that these totals may have included students who remained on the program roster but were not enrolled in every semester. South Carolina State University (hereafter, the University) is continuing to verify how each total was calculated.

Additionally, it appears that some students were enrolled for one semester, did not participate during the following semester, and subsequently resumed participation in a later semester; although they may have remained affiliated with SC-PRRMT. Other students may have been enrolled and participating in the program without receiving a forgivable loan that semester because their financial need did not warrant an award. Receipt of funding, therefore, cannot be used by itself to determine whether a student was active.

Annual Program Enrollment and Financial Assistance Participation

Fiscal year	Previously reported total	Active
2021–22	67	44
2022–23	70	37
2023–24	78	32
2024–25	78	28
2025–26	18	18
Unduplicated Students Identified Across Five Fiscal Years:		72

Five-Year Financial Assistance Participation

During FY2021–22 through FY2025–26, the University's financial records identified 72 students across the five-year reporting period. Financial assistance varied across reporting periods, with some students receiving assistance during one and/or multiple semesters.

Recruitment, Retention, Graduation, and Praxis Pass Rates

The University reviewed available program reports and student-level records to examine recruitment, retention, and graduation outcomes during FY2021–22 through FY2025–26. Previously reported graduation figures were compared with available student records, while student continuity was examined using unique university identification numbers.

Five-Year Recruitment, Retention, and Graduation Outcomes

Fiscal year	Applicants / eligible applicants reported	Active Students	Continuing Students	Graduates reported	Graduated
2021–22	------	44	—	7	5
2022–23	------	37	29	8	5
2023–24	------	32	22	7	3
2024–25	------	28	19	8	7
2025–26	------	18	18	6	3

Praxis Core Pass Rates

An analysis of available Praxis Core examination records was conducted using data obtained from the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to assess documented examination outcomes among program participants. Examination records were cross-referenced with annual student award rosters to identify participants with documented passing scores.

Documented Praxis Core Performance

Award Year	Students Listed	Documented Praxis Core Pass ≥1	Percentage
2021–2022	44	6	13.6%
2022–2023	37	6	16.2%
2023–2024	32	6	18.8%
2024–2025	28	5	17.9%
2025–2026	18	3	16.7%

Note. Documented Praxis Core passage reflects students who passed one or more (≥1) sections of the Praxis Core examination (Reading, Writing, or Mathematics). Praxis Core requirements apply to undergraduate teacher education candidates; students enrolled in qualifying master's-level teacher preparation programs are exempt from this requirement.

Definitions and Methodologies

To ensure consistency and accuracy in reporting, South Carolina State University has established the following definitions and calculation methodologies for evaluating SC-PRRMT recruitment, retention, graduation, and Praxis examination outcomes. These measures provide a beginning framework for reviewing available historical records, reconciling previously reported information, and assessing program outcomes across the five-year reporting period.

Table 4

Definitions and Calculation Methodologies for Program Performance Measures

Measure	Calculation Methodology
Recruitment rate	The number of eligible applicants who enrolled and began participating in SC-PRRMT during the defined intake period.
Retention rate	The number of participants in a defined entering cohort who remained enrolled, active, and/or funded.

Graduation rate	The number of participants who graduated from the SC-PRRMT.
Praxis pass rate	The number of participants with documented passing scores on at least one section of the Praxis Core examination (Reading, Writing, or Mathematics).

Participant Financial Assistance and Loan Status

The University reviewed participant-level financial assistance records to identify awards provided to SC-PRRMT participants by semester and to reconcile the financial status of each participant.

Sites and Delivery Model

During the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020–2021, the SC-PRRMT transitioned from its previous delivery model to an online format to maintain program operations and support participating students. Following this transition, it appears that the program continued utilizing online and hybrid delivery methods to accommodate participants and provide flexibility in accessing program services. The use of online and hybrid formats may allow the program to maintain a more flexible approach to course and degree attainment.

Note. Appropriations were not received in every fiscal year. During FY 2023–24, the University received appropriations corresponding to both FY 2022–23 and FY 2023–24. A portion of the FY 2024–25 appropriation was received during FY 2025–26. During FY 2024–25 and FY 2025–26, the former director became terminally ill. Additionally, a review of previously submitted financial reports suggests that Automated Clearing House (ACH) collections may not have been consistently included in reported collection totals. Carried-forward balances reflect funds remaining from prior fiscal years, including funds associated with ACH and SCDOE revenue collection activities.

Strategic Priorities and Continuous Improvement

South Carolina State University remains committed to strengthening the administration, accountability, and overall effectiveness of the South Carolina Program for the Recruitment and Retention of Minority Teachers (SC-PRRMT). Continued state funding for SC-PRRMT at South Carolina State University is an investment in South Carolina's schools, communities, and future workforce. The SC-PRRMT strengthens this mission by helping prospective teachers overcome financial barriers, complete their preparation, and enter the teaching profession.

With a longstanding tradition of nationally accredited teacher preparation, the University has prepared generations of educators who serve school districts throughout the state. Graduate employment and retention data underscore this contribution by documenting the number of SC State graduates who enter teaching positions and remain in South Carolina's school districts. Sustained funding supports this educator pipeline and helps ensure that schools have the qualified teachers' students need to succeed.

Through this five-year comprehensive review, the University has undertaken a detailed examination of historical financial records, student participation, retention trends, graduation outcomes, Praxis examination results, and teacher certification and employment information. These efforts and preliminary findings have provided a more comprehensive understanding of program operations, identified areas requiring additional verification and reconciliation, and established a foundation for continued program improvement.

The Commission on Higher Education's request for a comprehensive review of the past five fiscal years provides an opportunity to strengthen the program's accountability and more effectively document its contributions. The University recognizes the importance of providing accurate enrollment figures, clearly defined outcome measures, verified participant financial records, and documented certification and employment results. Completing this work is essential to demonstrate responsible stewardship of public funds.

Accountability and continued investment must advance together to ensure the program's long-term sustainability and effectiveness. Sustained state support will continue to help preserve access for aspiring educators, support students already progressing toward certification, and strengthen the supply of qualified teachers for South Carolina's districts.

We appreciate the Commission and the General Assembly for sustaining the funding for SC-PRRMT while requiring timely completion of the comprehensive review and measurable improvements in reporting and program administration. Through transparent oversight and continued support, South Carolina can protect an important teacher preparation pathway and advance its commitment to a qualified, diverse, and effective teaching workforce.

Tuition and Required Fees

2025-26, In-State, Undergraduate

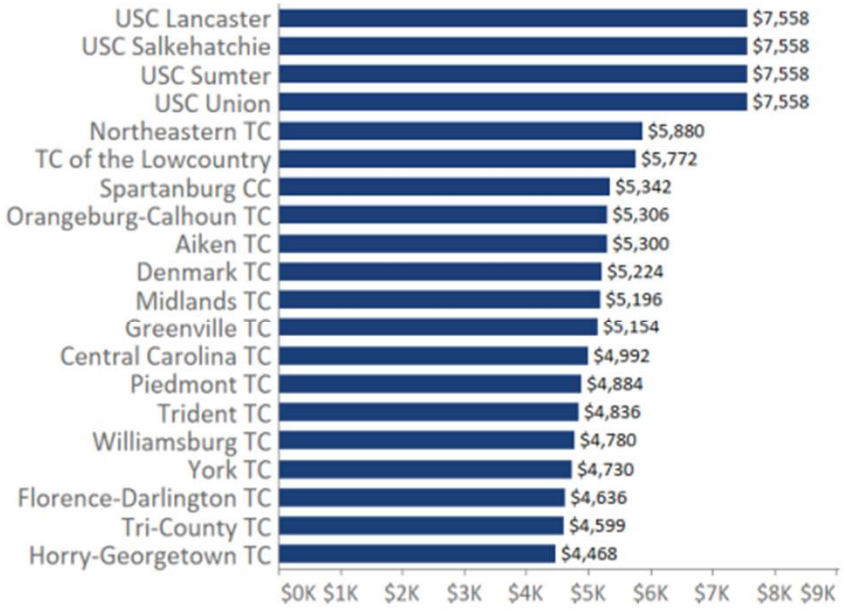

These values represent what a typical South Carolina resident student is charged and may not be the same for all students at an institution. If tuition is charged on a per-credit-hour basis, the average full-time credit hour load for an entire academic year is used to estimate average tuition. Required fees include all fixed sum charges that are required of such a large proportion of all students that the student who does NOT pay the charges is an exception.

The tuition and required fees does not include fees charged by certain majors (business, engineering, science, etc.) or course specific fees. Typical categories of required tuition and fees include education and general tuition, student activity fees, registration fees, debt service fees, medical fees, intercollegiate athletic fees, student activities fees, instructional technology fees, plant improvement fees, and maintenance fees.

"What if Scenarios"

- The scenarios were created with a goal of increasing amounts to meet a Cost of Attendance or Cost of Tuition level for each scholarship.
- The scenarios do not account for further increases in tuition, fees or other elements of Cost of Attendance.
- The scenarios are awarding students the full award amount for each scholarship – It is important to note that not all students will receive the maximum amount.
- For Palmetto Fellows and LIFE Scholarships, the scenarios are impacting the base award amount. This does not include a discussion of what the new enhancement amounts would be if the base award was increased.
- These scenarios should not be considered official projections or fiscal impacts at this point.
