

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the decision to access post-secondary education after high school graduation plays a vital role in the future success of our young people and our state; and

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State produces tens of thousands of high school graduates every year with the opportunity to attend post-secondary institutions, enter the workforce, or enlist in the military; and

WHEREAS, students who pursue post-secondary education and training can improve their earnings potential over their working careers; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education and high schools across our state are committed to celebrating the decisions of our graduating high school seniors.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Henry McMaster, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2023 as

COLLEGE AND CAREER DECISION MONTH

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to learn more about the post-secondary programs and institutions, career opportunities, and military branches available for our students and to recognize those graduating high school seniors who are making the decision to pursue a successful future through post-secondary education, entry into the workforce, and military service.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Henry McMaster".

HENRY McMASTER
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA